Qui Vives.
Miss Marguerite Morris entertained the Qui Vives Thursday afternoon with Rook. Red and yellow dahlias in all the glow of their gorgeous beauty adorned the parlors and dining room. After enjoying several games all were invited to the dining room, where an elegant buffet luncheon was served. Miss Morris was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. V. D. Wilson.

Spot Cash.
On Saturday Mrs. R. M. Dunn, chairman of the Second Ward School Improvement Committee, received a check from Mr. G. E. Dilley for the $100 offered by him for the prettiest and best kept school yard in the city. The ladies of that ward worked hard for the laurels, and now that they have been placed, they are planning for greater things. Mr. Dilley's generosity is unbounded for his home—Palestine—and this last gift of his is appreciated by those receiving it, more than they can say.

Birthday Fete.
Master Ben Franklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Broyles, celebrated his fifth birthday on last Wednesday afternoon. His mamma gave him a lawn fete at the beautiful home on Magnolia street. The lawn was transformed into a panorama of joy and beauty of childhood. Druggists were here and there for the little ones to tumble and jump on and many merry romps were enjoyed. Daisies and dahlias furnished the floral decorations. The birthday cake, bearing five candles of pink, was cut, Miss Leona Price cutting the ring and Master Ira Pells Trotter the time. Delicious refreshments were served. "A bucket march" was a pretty feature—the little ones marching to music, each receiving a bucket of bonbons as a favor of Ben's party. He received pretty gifts from his little guests. Mrs. Broyles was assisted in entertaining by her sisters, Miss Mittie Quarles and Mrs. Frank B. Bries.

Knights of Columbus.
The Knights of Columbus celebrated the discovery of America Wednesday, October twelfth, with a grand outing at East Side Park. The Knights and their families went out in parties. Mrs. J. E. Angly chaperoned the Catholic children. The day was passed in music, happy conversation and dancing, with races for the gayer ones. The winners in the sack races were Charles Murrell, a

FEAST OF TABERNACLES

WILL BE OBSERVED AT TEMPLE BETH ISRAEL MONDAY NIGHT.

Wednesday Evening and Thursday Services at the Temple Were Well Attended.

From sundown of October twelfth to sundown of October thirteenth, the Jews since Moses gave the law—told of in Leviticus 16th chapter, 29-34, and 23rd chapter, 26-32—have held this time in holy reverence. "And this shall be a statute forever unto you, that on this day ye shall afflict your souls and do no work at all, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger that sojourneth among you, from even unto even shall ye celebrate your Sabbath." The Jews call this the Sabbath of solemn rest. On Wednesday night Rabbi Sol Schaumburg conducted the services at Temple Beth Israel, taking for his subject "Atonement and Repentance." On Thursday services were held all day at the synagogue, and Rabbi Schaumburg again preached to his people, the subject being "Spiritual Peace." All of the Jewish people attended, and also quite a number came up from Crockett, Rusk and other nearby towns. There were several Jewish drummers in the city, who remained for the Sabbath of rest, enjoying the services also and obeying the command given to Moses "or a stranger that sojourneth among you." Next Monday night the Feast of Tabernacles will begin, which was ordained in Exodus 23rd chapter, 16th verse, and has been kept throughout the ages by these chosen people of God.

pocket knife; Miss Hilda Ingleman, a box of candy; Mrs. Angelo Burns, some dainty handkerchiefs. Mr. Fallow won a box of cigars in a foot race. Messrs. Tom McKernon and Julius Schwab took the boat race prizes. An elegant dinner was served at the noon hour.

At night in the Knights' hall, made beautiful for the occasion, the Knights and their friends again assembled. Games and dancing were pleasant features of the evening, with refreshments ever and anon.

Farewell Party.
Mrs. Ed Short entertained yesterday afternoon with four tables of high five in honor of her sister, Miss Stringer, who leaves in a few days for Houston, to spend the winter with relatives. Pink and white were the color scheme. Pink and white carnations and roses were charming in every apartment, with ferns for a background. Little Luell Short, the little lady of the home, passed the tally cards, which were miniature suit cases with tags for stations to be passed en route for Houston—suggesting the departure and trip of the honoree. The little suit cases were filled with pink and white mints, to be eaten on the journey—of progressive high five. After eight games it was found that Mrs. Clarence Kolstad had passed more stations, and she was declared winner of the first prize, a pretty piece of lingerie. Miss Josie Ellis won the consolation, a deck of cards. After this covers were laid and a lovely two-course luncheon served. Mrs. Short was assisted in entertaining by Mesdames G. H. Turner, Frank Price and H. F. Brunow.

Woman's Social Club.
The Woman's Social Club held its first meeting of the new club year with Mrs. B. H. Gardner on Wednesday afternoon. This is an old established club of Palestine, and their social events have always been beautiful, and no doubt for the coming cold days the ladies have pretty occasions and new ideas in view.

Mrs. Will Irving returned yesterday from Austin, where she attended the state convention of the Order of the Eastern Star. The grand meeting was at the capital, and the senate chamber tendered the convention. Every honor and courtesy possible were shown by Austin people to the body and individuals.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Sewell are guests of relatives in Sherman.

A NO. 1 GOES TO PRISON

CHARGED WITH BREAKING INTO RAILROAD BOX CAR.

Famous Tramp Who Has Toured the World Several Times and Known in Palestine.

A No. 1, the famous world tourist who has visited Palestine on several occasions, and who is known from ocean to ocean, was recently arrested in California and sentenced to five years in state's prison on the charge of breaking into a box car near San Francisco. The prisoner stoutly denies his guilt, and many who have met and talked to the famous tramp will not believe him guilty. There has always been a mystery about A No. 1, and he has never revealed his identity. He is a nice appearing man, well educated, speaking several languages and posted on many matters of statecraft. On his visits to Palestine he was usually very discreet, and confined his acquaintance to railroad people and newspaper men. When last here he showed the writer a number of letters from railroad officials over the country commending him for a number of heroic acts. One railroad did him the honor to have him name a fast mail train for them. To a man who has spent most of his life roving over the world a prison sentence will go especially hard with him.

Will Retain His Position.
Austin, Texas, Oct. 14.—State Health Officer Brumby, who returned today from San Antonio, announced that he had reconsidered his decision to resign his office at present, and will remain as state health officer until the expiration of Governor Campbell's term of office next January. Dr. Brumby said he has the report of the department yet to prepare, and will accordingly continue in office.

COTTON RECEIPTS GIVEN

LOCAL WEIGHERS REPORT THE RECEIPT OF 5380 BALES.

Over Four Hundred Bales Short as Compared With Last Year, Due to Lateness of Crop.

Up to Friday night Messrs. Walter McInnis and W. H. Calcote, weighers, had weighed 5380 bales of this season's cotton. The receipts to date are over four hundred bales short as compared with last year, it being estimated that 5800 bales were marketed here up to October 14, 1909. However, the comparison is gratifying. The crop this year is late by about three weeks, and this accounts, to some extent, for the shortage. The price is holding up well.
From all reports the top crop of Anderson county this year will be insignificant. The weather has been ideal for picking, and the crop is being rushed to market, very few, if any, farmers holding for higher prices.
